1. C and R Enterprises

A close-up photograph showing the hands of several business professionals in dark suits. They are gathered around a table covered with various documents, including spreadsheets and charts. One person is holding a tablet computer, while others are pointing at or writing on the papers. The scene suggests a collaborative business meeting or a review of financial data.

A top-down view of a wooden workbench cluttered with various hand tools. In the upper left, there are several sockets and a small blue and red tool kit. A yellow and black adjustable wrench is prominent on the left. A yellow tape measure is in the lower left. In the center, there are yellow-handled pliers and a screwdriver. To the right, a hammer with a wooden handle and a metal head is visible, along with a metal bracket. Scattered throughout are numerous screws, nails, and other small fasteners. The background is a light-colored wooden surface.
